CHARLES M'KENNEY FORMER RESIDENT HERE, IS DEAD

Young Business Man, Taken Ill From War Service, Passes at Monrovia

Former Glendale friends and neighbors of Charles E. McKenney will be grieved to hear of his death Monday night, August 8, 1921. The end came at a Monrovia sanitarium, where Mr. McKenney had gone four months ago in an effort to recuperate from the disease that ultimately claimed him as its victim and which he contracted while serving with the American Expeditionary Forces in France in 1918. The deceased was 32 years 11 months and 24 days old.

Mr. McKenney will be remembered by his many local friends as an upright and honorable young business man. He was a member of the Glendale Elks club, having been initiated into that organization at the lodge's first meeting in this city.

At the time of his death Mr. McKenney claimed Venice as his home, he having moved to that city from Glendale in 1916 with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. McKenney. He and his father were partners in a retail hardware concern on South San Fernando road for several years, afterward moving their stock to the beach city, where Mr. McKenney, Sr., is now conducting the business.

Married Two Years Ago

Two years ago Mr. McKenney was married to a Los Angeles girl, and a year and a half later a baby was born. Both survive Mr. McKenney.

The funeral services, which will be held in the Little Church of the Flowers, will take place Friday afternoon, the officers of the local Elks lodge to be in charge of the ceremony. Several relatives of the deceased are hurrying from the east to be present at the burial, which will be in charge of the L. G. Scovern Undertaking company.

GLENDALE MAN AND SOVIET OFFICERS IN CONFERENCE

Walter Lyman Brown, Now In Russia, Asks Assurances for Workers' Safety

Walter Lyman Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Brown of 406 North Maryland, and brother of Howard Brown, head of the American relief commission sent to Russia by Herbert Hoover, is now in conference with Soviet officials, as the following from the United Press to The Evening News shows:

RIGA, Aug. 10. — Walter Lyman Brown, chief of the American relief commission assigned to Russia, arrived here today and immediately went into conference with soviet representatives.

Boris Litvinoff, head of the soviet delegation, was accompanied by M. Shapalin, famous singer.

Brown demanded assurances in regard to the American prisoners and guaranties for safety of relief workers.

The Americans crossed the border into Esthonia this morning.

Narva is the first city on the Esthonian side, situated at the head of Narva Bay. Because of poor transportation the run to Reval was expected to take most of the day.

Brown and Litvinoff went into conference at 2 p. m. Brown immediately demanded information regarding the whereabouts of the American prisoners.

He was informed that they spent last night at Yambourg, just inside the Russian border and that they will be in Reval tonight.

Brown declared that the only condition on which relief will be tendered the Russians is that every American in Russia who desires to leave shall be permitted to do so.

That condition applies to all Americans, whether actually confined in prison or not.

Brown said that he has eight thousand tons of food in Hamburg and Danzig ready for immediate shipment into Russia. That amount was deemed sufficient to feed a million children for at least a month.

Americans at Reval.

PARIS, Aug. 10.—A message to Red Cross headquarters here today said that six American prisoners released from Russia had arrived at Reval on their way home.

NEW GROCERY STORE AND GARAGE FOR W. BROADWAY

Oldsmobile Agents to Lease Structure; Horseshoe Club Must Move Once More

It is understood that Ralphs Grocery company has purchased the northwest corner of Broadway and Orange street, 106½ by 187 feet, for a consideration in the neighborhood of $35,000. As soon as two residences on the property are removed a large store building will be erected on this well located business corner.

Arnold M. Desplantes at 101 North Orange and John A. Cole at 107 North Orange will be forced to move their homes by this ingress of the commercial center.

The perennial move of the Glendale Horseshoe club is under way again.

No more than does this aggregation of quoit players get estabiished until along comes Old Man Progress with his cane and chases them away.

With the announcement today by Oma A. Fish that he will build a 50 by 75 foot garage and display room for the Oldsmobile agency, the members of the club commenced pulling up stakes and arranging for the new grounds nearer Central avenue and Broadway.

Messrs. Perrung & Pollock, Oldsmobile agents, have signed a five year lease on the building at 210 West Broadway, which Mr. Fish will erect within the next sixty days at a cost of $8000. It will have plate glass display windows and be of modern brick construction.

Five new business blocks have been constructed in the vicinity of Orange street and Broadway since the first of the year and several more will completely fill in the business district between Brand boulevard and Central avenue before the first of the year, it is confidently expected.

U. S. DESTROYER STANDING BY WRECKED PACIFIC LINER

SAN DIEGO, Aug. 10.—Wireless dispatches to the flagship Charleston here today state that the U. S. destroyer Farquhar is standing by the wrecked Pacific Mail liner San Jose at San Pablo reef, waiting for the arrival of the merchant liner Griffdu. Upon the arrival of the Griffdu today, an attempt will be made to float the San Jose at high tide. The thirty-three passengers of the San Jose, these dispatches stated, are still in camp on shore. None was injured in leaving the ship and all are said to be in good health. A number of these passengers are women. The unusually calm weather alone prevented serious loss of life in the opinion of shipping men here, as the seas at San Pablo are ordinarily treacherous.

STRICT NEUTRALITY TOWARD GRAECO-TURKISH STRIFE

PARIS, Aug. 10.—America's attitude toward commerce at the beginning of the world war was used by the allied supreme council today to decide its course in the Graeco-Turkish war. The allies decided to preserve strict neutrality with no intervention in the shape of military or credits assistance. There will be no interference with private commerce. The decision was reached on the advice of Lloyd George. He pointed out that America in 1914 adopted the same course, taking no part in the conflict on either side, but permitting private commerce to handle its own affairs. Colonel George Harvey, American observer at the conference, broke his silence during the discussion, to say that such a course could be defended legally.

CHANGE OF VENUE IS OFFERED TO GOVERNOR SMALL

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 10.—Len Small, Illinois' governor, arrested after two weeks of playing hide and seek with Sheriff Henry Mester, today was offered a change of venue by State's Attorney Fred Mortimer. The governor has frequently been quoted as saying he would not be given a fair trial in Sangamon county court, where warrants charge him with embezzling large sums of state money were returned. Mortimer outlined a plan whereby the governor could obtain a change of venue into any other county when his case comes up for trial. The governor was at liberty on posting $50,000 bond. He will be arraigned on the first Monday in September before Judge Ernest Smith here, along with the two alleged conspirators indicted with him—Lieutenant Governor Fred Sterling and Vernon Curtis, a banker of Kankakee.

HARDING CALLS LEADERS OF CONGRESS IN CONFERENCE

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—President Harding called leaders of both houses of congress into conference again today in the hope of bringing an agreement to end the legislative deadlock and enable congress to take brief vacation. Questions giving the president the most trouble are: 1—The extent to which taxes can be cut. 2—Agreement on a tariff bill which will satisfy conflicting interests of producers and consumers in all sections of the country. 3—Enactment of the railroad relief measure before congress takes a recess. The president returned from his ten day vacation to find these questions in a sadly tangled state due to the inability of leaders to reach an agreement with Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. The president has found it necessary to crack tthe White House whip over refractory leaders.

PROSECUTOR TO ASK INDICTMENTS IN L. A. MURDER

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 10.—The prologue of the Kennedy murder trial drama is done. The somber play itself comes next. Preliminary investigation into the alleged connection of beautiful Madalynne Obenchain and Arthur C. Burch, the latter enigmatic and smiling, was concluded during the night. The grand jury has been summoned to convene tomorrow morning. Indictments will be asked by the district attorney. Burch still smiles behind his thick-lensed glasses. Madalynne, pale as death, apparently steadfast in her love for John Belton Kennedy, said stoically: "It makes no difference if I am indicted, nor if I am convicted, nor if I am hung. Belton is dead. They may send me to him if they will." Branding Kennedy, Sr., father of the murdered man, as "bitter and vindictive" toward Madalynne, the girl's mother, Mrs. Emma Smart, was standing staunchly by her side today. "Mr. Kennedy would make it seem that Madalynne had pursued his son," Mrs. Smart said. "It was the other way. Belton's pursuit could not possibly have been more insistent. Why, even on the day of Madalynne's marriage, Belton sent her a special delivery letter which arrived just before the ceremony, and upset my girl completely. "No one desires to probe into the life of one who is gone, but if vindictiveness forces us in self defense to throw light into the recesses of Belton Kennedy's past, many disclosures may be expected." Little Mrs. Smart advanced another theory; the possibility that the shot which killed Kennedy was intended for her daughter, "in which case," she concluded, "the gun surely could not have been held by Arthur Burch."

PACIFIC DISTRICT AND GRAND VIEW MAY COMBINE

Union of Associations to Be Considered; Discuss Postoffice Changes

The Grand View Improvement association met at E. H. Botsford's home Tuesday night for a busines and social meeting, having as their guests the Glendale City councilmen and twenty-five members of the Pacific avenue district. The association, of which H. G. Randall is the chairman, had prepared petitions to send to the postmaster general at Washington, requesting that the address of the Grand View and Pacific avenue district be changed from the Burbank to the Glendale postoffice, as the school district has been changed from Burbank to Glendale.

The school committee, consisting of Mrs. Myrtle Buckman, Mrs. E. Ellsperman, P. C. Ayers, E. H. Botsford and E. H. Learned will meet this week with the Glendale city school board to discuss problems relating to the transportation of the children in that district to and from school.

Forces May Be Joined

The people of the Pacific avenue district were invited for the purpose of urging that they join forces with the Grand View district, as their needs and problems are declared almost identical. A committee will be chosen to make the invitation a formal one.

The evening was spent very pleasantly, about ninety people being present, and it proved a splendid opportunity for many of them to meet new and old friends. Light refreshments were served.

The next meeting will take place August 23, at the Botsford home. It will be principally a social evening, the city councilmen have accepted an invitation to be present and a very nice program is being arranged as entertainment.

The Grand View association takes a great deal of pride in the upbuilding of the district and considerable interest is being displayed in the meeting to be held August 23.

Look, Boys! Here Is Chance to Have Fine Time and Win Money!

Hey! Skinnay!

Let's go! All aboard for the big race.

Wednesday afternoon, August 17, there will be every available coaster wagon in Glendale on the Grand View Hill. Here's the big idea:

Mrs. C. G. Woods, who resides on Grand View avenue, likes to see the boys have fun and as she has watched several of them racing down to Kenneth road, the thought has come to her that someone ought to sponsor a real race.

Therefore, she offers $5 in cash to the boy under 15 years of age who pilots a four-wheel wagon down the hill in the quickest time next Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Only one boy will be permitted to ride on a wagon. Bicycle wheels, skooters, etc., will be barred for the race must be determined by good old-fashioned coasters.

Escape Serious Injury In Automobile Accident

Miraculously escaping death, Morris Andrews and Miss Mary Farrel of this city, who were motoring to a Los Angeles theatre last evening, crashed through a heavy fence on a Verdugo road curve and smashed Mr. Andrews' Ford sedan. Outside of minor lacerations neither was hurt.

Mr. Andrews, who is houseman at the Elks' club, stated that the lights of a passing machine blinded him and in order to avoid colliding with it, he turned his car off the road a little too far to avoid going into the ditch.

This morning mechanics from the Ford agency brought in the wreck.

CITY'S ATTRACTION WELL DESCRIBED BY R. H. HORTON

Inspirational Talk Proves of Great Interest to C. of C. Directors

Hitting the high spots of what Glendale has to offer newcomers, R. H. Horton of the F. P. Newport Company daily lectures at the Verdugo Woodlands tract on the possibilities for the homebuilder and investor.

During the course of his speech which was heard yesterday by the Chamber of Commerce board of directors, he said:

"Glendale is a city of schools, churches, theaters and clubs, but above all it is a city of homes.

"It is the great hub of a great wheel of building activity north and west of Los Angeles.

"Today Glendale stands as a city in which every citizen is proud he is a resident—because 75 per cent live in homes they own.

"As a guarantee to the investor the fact that Verdugo Woodlands lies within the corporate limits of Glendale is assurance enough.

"Sixteen years ago Glendale was only a vision. Now it boasts of 20,000 population—a city that led the world in percentage of growth the last ten years.

"Two thousand new homes were constructed here last year, increasing the population approximately 5000 in 12 months' time. And already this record has been broken for the same time this year."

Mr. Horton commented on the successful municipal ownership of water and light, the growth of Los Angeles and southern California, the developments of the Verdugo Woodlands and declared that by 1950 Los Angeles will be the greatest city in the world and the gateway to the orient, South America and Australia."

Driving home the lesson to be learned in homebuilding, he quoted one of Billy Sunday's epigrams: "Singing 'Home Sweet Home' in a rented house is kidding yourself and serenading the landlord."

Glendale people who would like to hear an inspirational lecture on the potentialities of southern California would do well to gather under the ancient oak tree at the Old Adobe at 12 o'clock noon at Verdugo Woodlands, any day except Sundays and Mondays and hear Mr. Horton.

Wonder Wear
A KORITE PRODUCT

When you hear of great discoveries in electricity, medicine, and mechanics, you wonder why science doesn't do something to help you every day in your life, such as making shoes wear longer.

That is just what has happened. Science offers you WonderWear.

About a year ago thousands of newspapers and magazines announced that Fred A. Howard, the New England scientist, had discovered a new basic product which restored and preserved the original life of leather. Since then this new fluid, now named WonderWear, has been used on many thousands of pairs of shoes, of all kinds of leather, worn under all conditions, and in many climates, and the result is always the same —the wearing quality of the shoes is greatly lengthened, they are permanently made delightfully comfortable, and this remarkable change, accomplished by the single treatment with WonderWear, does not prevent the shoes from taking the usual shine.

Some day the size of your family's shoe bill will lead you to buy and use WonderWear. Do not feel that you risk anything. WonderWear radically improves leather, so cannot injure your shoes—and if you do not agree that WonderWear does exactly those unusual things claimed for it—your money will be returned to you.

Korite Products, Inc., 91 Bedford Street, Boston, Massachusetts

LOS ANGELES SALES OFFICE, 908 SECURITY BUILDING

If your dealer doesn't yet carry WonderWear, we will send you a standard size can (enough for four paris) for 50c. WonderWear is sold by drug, hardware, shoe, housefurnishing, sporting goods, luggage, department and grocery stores.

N. H. Stanley Says Enough Is Enough and Who His Key

N. H. Stanley of 738 South Maryland avenue claims that practical jokes become decidedly impractical when they are practiced in an impractical manner. He was the victim of one of these infeasable "jokes" last Saturday night when someone slipped in his garage and locked the switch lock, keeping the key.

Thinking it was a prank being played by some friends Mr. Stanley paid little attention to the episode until Sunday evening when he wanted to take a short ride is his machine. But the only switch key was still missing and Stanley had to do his outing "a la feet."

After waiting until Tuesday morning for the "kidder" to return the key Mr. Stanley had to remove the entire lock and carry it to a local locksmith, who manufactured a duplicate key.

Now he is expecting to have the original key returned to him with the joker's compliments.

Work for Million Men Would Result, Bureau Head Claims

By L. C. MARTIN
United Press Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Aug. 10.—Jobs for 1,000,000 idle men will be provided if congress passes the administration's railroad credit bill, Eugene Meyer, head of the war finance corporation, declared before the senate interstate commerce committee in opening hearings on the bill.

It would put 200,000 men immediately at work making railroad equipment, he said, and by creating a great demand for fuel and other materials would gradually result in reopening of industries at present closed or operating on a reduced basis.

Interwoven with the bill's effect on unemployment would be, Meyer said:

1—Improvement of the market for farm products.

2—Releasing of "frozen credit" in great amounts for the help of general business.

3—Advancing of the time when railroad rates can be reduced.

4—Increases in government revenues by reason of increase in general business.

Perfect Girl Seeks to Wed Perfect Man

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Aug. 10.—Audrey Munson, world famous sculptor's model, is looking for the "perfect man" to be her mate and father of her "ideal family."

It is physical perfection that Miss Munson is seeking, as she is popularly regarded as being near that point herself. It doesn't make the least difference to her whether her ideal is a butcher, baker or candle stick maker; whether he eats with his knife, or says "ain't," so long as he measures up to her standard.

Whatever his faults, she believes she and her soul mate would be supremely happy.

Miss Munson coyly admitted today that she had rejected seven suitors because of some slight psysical imperfection. One had an abnormally long chin.

When the model's attention was called to the fact that Jack Dempsey came the nearest of any public character to being her "perfect man" physically, she readily replied that she was willing to marry him or any other who attained her standard.

Parents Can Assist Young Folk to Win Bike From The News

Who will be the next boy or girl to win a bicycle in The Glendale Evening News Suscription club which closes September 1? Any number of youngsters can win these $65 Harley-Davidson wheels and from the increasing list of new subscribers a number of them are going to gain their goal pretty quickly.

Doris Magarrell is getting a "million dollars' worth" of enjoyment out of the classy bike she got and in her spare moments she is earning a wheel for her little sister.

Parents of the youngsters who are in the club are urged to aid them in their efforts as it is good business experience. All that is necessary is systematic canvassing and politeness. People like to help, but sometimes they do not have the cash on hand to pay their subscription in advance. In such cases the solicitor should make careful note of when they will have it and be "Johnny on the job."

Every aid will be given by the circulation department. All club members should report progress daily so there will be no delay in getting The Glendale Evening News to new subscribers.

Teacher—Jane, can you tell me who succeeded Edward VI?

Jane—Mary.

Teacher—Now, Lucy, who followed Mary?

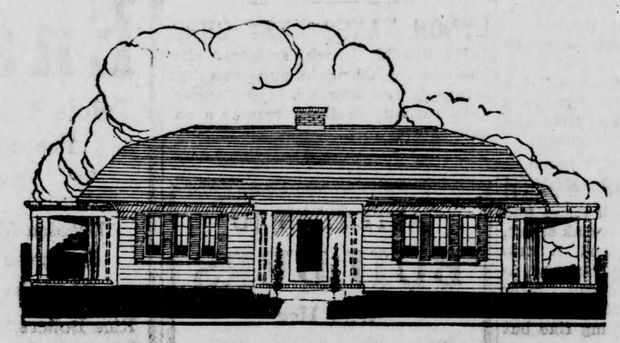
Lucy—Her little lamb.

Two girls beat an octopus to death at Eureka, Calfi., when the creature seized in its tentacles the eight-year-old brother of the girls. Using oars bayonet fashion, the girls partly stunned the animal, which loosened its hold on the boy and crawled to nearby rocks, where it was beaten to death.

The Philippine railroads are to be electrified with power developed from the Ango river, in central Luzon. This river is believed to possess a potential capacity of 14,000 horse power.

The American Legion asserts that there are now 15,000 former service men who cannot be given needed medical treatment.

The True Colonial House Reflected the Character of Its Owner



After the Revolution, the log cabin had served its greatest purpose as the American home, and our country became more receptive to education and refinement.

At this stage of our progress, the true Colonial house, with its stern, puritanical exterior, and bright, warm interior, symbolized the lives and hearts of the American people.

Today, Glendale's great need is homes for the thousands of desirable people who would become citizens if they could only find a place in which to live. Every person who is turned away from our city because he cannot find a home means to us a loss of growth. It is the duty of every patriotic citizen to aid in the building and maintenance of genuine homes.

Let us help with your bungalow plans—carefully executed plans and select, fully seasoned lumber are both to be had here.

BRANCH LIBRARY IS OFFERING CHOICE OF NEW BOOKS

Splendid Selection Put on Shelves; Fiction Varied for Vacation Reading

The branch library on South Brand boulevard, which is in charge of Charles H. Cushing, has just received a splendid selection of new books, both by purchase and donation, and which have been offered for general distribution. The following are included in the books released for distribution:

"Who's Who in America," a reference book, the need of which has long been felt.

"Roaming Through the West Indies," by Harry Franck and "Mystis Isles of the South Seas," by O'Brien, two delightful books of travel. Those who read the latter's "White Shadows in the South Seas" will be anxious to see this later work.

"Songs of the Outlands," a book of breezy western poems by Knibbs.

"Seven Ages of Childhood," by Ella Lyman Cabot. A wonderful help to parents and teachers in understanding the child.

"Echoes of the War," a book of plays by Barrie.

"Modern Drama in Europe," by Jameson. Tells of the tendencies of the drama in an interesting and critical way. A large amount of space is given to Ibsen.

Some Of Donations

Among the donations is "The Life Work of Louis Klopsch." This is a wonderfully interesting account of the philanthropic work of Mr. Klopsch including relief in the famines of India, China and Japan.

Other donations are "Pictorial History of the Civil War," by Lossing.

"Personal Memoirs of General Grant.

Prescott's "Conquest of Mexico."

Poems of Poe, "Irving's Sketch Book."

Hawthorne's "Scarlet Letter."

"Pandora's Box," by J. A. Mitchell.

"J. Devlin-Boss," a story of American Political Life and "A Woman Named Smith," by Oemler.

Some new fiction suitable for summer reading:

"Sister Sue," the last and best book by Eleanor Porter.

"Gunsight Pass," by Raine, featuring the effect of oil discovery in the cattle country.

"Galusha the Magnificent," by Lincoln.

"Tarzan the Terrible," by Burroughs.

"Captain Macedoine's Daughter," by McFee.

"Border Legion" and "Last of the Plainsmen," by Zane Grey.

New copies of a number of Zane Grey's books have been secured as it is difficult to supply the demand for that popular author's works. There is also a new copy of "Pollyanna."

New Juvenile Books

Some new juvenile books are the following:

"Injun and Whitey Strike Out for Themselves," by Bill Harte.

"A Short Stop," by Zane Grey.

"Isabel Carleton in the West" and "Isabel Carleton at Home," by Margaret Ashmun.

"Marian Frear's Summer," by Margaret Ashmun.

"Light Foot the Deer," by Burgess.

"On the Warpath," by Schultz.

"The Royal Book of Oz," by Baum.

The new plan of having the branch open all day from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m. is proving very satisfactory.

Both the circulation and the use of the reading room show a marked increase.

Mr. Cushing is in charge from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m., and from 5 p. m. to 9 p. m. Miss Helen Hartwig has charge from 1 p. m. to 5 p. m.

Miss Alice Green conducts the story hour at 3 p. m. on Saturdays.

Police Issue Warning Against Taking Flowers

Glendale police are on the lookout for thieves who have been stripping flowers from the parkways on West Cerritos avenue. The parkways of the city are not private, but city property and any one taking the flowers are destroying city property. A heavy fine will be imposed on the thieves when they are discovered, the police say.

This week the beautiful pink amaryllis blooms that filled the parkways in front of Mrs. B. Ellison's and Frank Burnette's homes at 323 and 327 West Cerritos avenue were all cut and carried away in one night. This is not the first time flowers have been taken in this way and the police are issuing a warning that the theft of flowers from city property is a very serious offense.

A new world's record for a parachute drop for women was established when a woman dropped 15,200 feet from an airplane at St. Paul recently. It took twenty minutes to make the fall, and the young woman reported it as "terrible," and said she never wanted to try it again.

GLENDALE'S DAY AT VALLEY FAIR IS SUNDAY, SEPT. 18

This City Is Expected to Provide Program; Plans for Sacred Concert

Glendale-Sunland-Southern California Day at the San Fernando Valley Fair and Market has been announced by Director E. R. Elkins as Sunday, September 18, the closing day of the great agricultural, horticultural and industrial exposition.

The entertainment committee of the fair has informed James H. Rhoades, secretary of the Glendale Chamber of Commerce, that this city is to furnish the program which will consist of one and one-half hours in the morning, one and one-half hours in the afternoon and one hour at night.

Sacred concerts will probably feature Glendale's contributions on account of the day being Sunday. The largest crowds of the week are expected to attend on this day and the exposition grounds near San Fernando will be the mecca for thousands of motorists inasmuch as this is declared to be the official Los Angeles county fair.

A 20 by 24 feet space has been reserved for the Glendale Chamber of Commerce exhibit in the horticultural tent and Secretary Rhoades already is making arrangements to have a representative display. The women of this city are taking an active interest in the arrangements and this afternoon they will meet the general committees in Burbank to further plans. The Chamber of Commerce advisory committee of women also will attend to lend their aid.

Dr. Funk Tells Why Difference In Color Is Noted In Humans

Before the morning sermon each Sunday, Dr. H. C. Funk of the English Lutheran church gives an interpretation of some difficult passage of scripture or perplexing problem.

Last Sunday the question, "If Noah is the second parent of the human race, how do you account for the origin of the black man?" was presented. Dr. Funk explains that local influences, such as food, customs and climate, will account for the difference in color. We are told that dogs taken to a frigid zone grow shaggy, whereas sheep transported to a torrid zone exchange their wool for hair. Although a man may be white in Europe, black in Africa, yellow in Asia and red in America, he is still from the same stock, colored according to climate and his manner of life.

In Guinea and Senegal, on account of the intense heat, people are perfectly black; in Arabia they are brown, and in Europe they are fair. A company of Portuguese settling in Ceylon in a few centuries became blacker than the natives. In a few generations the local conditions of climate, intermixing, together with certain disorders and maladies, may account for the change in color, Dr. Funk declared.

Ladies' Aid Society Program Is Enjoyed; Musical Numbers Fine

A splendid crowd turned out last night to attend the musical entertainment given by the Ladies' Aid Society of the Central avenue Methodist Episcopal church in the social hall. The committee in charge of this musical program consisted of Miss Josephine Cocke, chairman; Mrs. Margaret I. Biggs, Miss Ida Burch, and Mrs. V. Hunter Brink.

The program included a community sing led by Dr. Joseph Marple; prayer, Dr. V. Hunter Brink; vocal solo, Mrs. Bullock; reading, Mrs. Eustace Moore; violin duet, Miss Genevieve Mulligan and Miss Julia Robinson, with Miss Constance Domslar at the piano; vocal colo, Mrs. J. Camerer; reading, Mr. Day; vocal solo, Mrs. Joseph Marple, accompanied by Dr. Frank Challinor; cornet solo, Miss Kennedy.

At the close of the evening refreshments were served by the entertainment committee.

B. C. Beamish Buyer of 'Buddy's Place'

B. C. Beamish who recently conducted the Hill Top Waffle House on West Third street in Los Angeles has purchased "Buddy's Place" at 212½ South Brand boulevard.

Mr. Beamish has been engaged in the hotel and restaurant business all his life in the east and in Sacramento and will at once remodel the premises and cater to a discriminating trade.

The cafe will be still known as "Buddy's Place" and in addition to short orders at all hours a special lunch will be served as well as a complete breakfast.

Mrs. Beamish, who is at present at the beach, will join her husband in a short time or as soon as a home may be secured.

Six-Reel Comedy of 'Skirts' Is Featured on Palace Grand Bill

Have you seen the Fox Sunshine Comedy Special "Skirts," now being shown at the Palace Grand Theatre? There are more than skirts to this riproaring six-reel comedy. There are bathing suits and pretty faces, many hundreds of 'em.

Romance with a capital R is found in the feature on the program with Tom Moore injecting the romance with all the finished art he commands. "Made in Heaven" is the title of the Goldwyn picture in which Mr. Moore is presented as a city fireman with an invention up his sleeve and wild dreams surging in his brain. One of his dreams centers about a much sought-after young lady, whose main object in life seems to be to escape the attentions of a rich idler. In this quandary she encounters the fireman and romantically tells him her troubles and asks his advice. Like the gentleman he is, the fireman suggests that she marry him; and, being an extremely romantic young lady, she does.

Loses His Lid, His Only Lid; But That's Nothing In His Life

E. P. "Hatless" Hayward, representing the Edwards & Wildey company, realtors and builders, with offices at 139 North Brand boulevard, tells a good yarn about the only hat he has owned since coming to Glendale several years ago.

In fact, nobody ever knew he owned a hat, for he bought it in San Francisco. He was going north to meet his wife and decided that San Francisco police might object to a bare-headed Southern Californian.

That's how he happened to buy a needless "lid" and the week after he returned home he left the "katy" parked under a seat at a theatre. He never had the heart to hunt it—and as every sort of style goes in "God's country," he should worry whether the Danbury hatters ever struck.

Hen Doesn't Lay for Week and Then She Makes Up for Delay

It was blue Monday.

The old hen hadn't laid an egg for a week.

"Laugh, you old food," said Townsend Clark of 818 East Acacia avenue as he searched the White Leghorn's nest.

Again she cackled and Clark was dumbfounded to find an egg that weighed seven and one-half ounces, measured ten inches the long way around and eight the other.

"What if she goes on a month's vacation next time," mused Clark, as he marched into the Chamber of Commerce yesterday with California's record crop of egg.

"You ought to sell that bird to the ostrich farm," commented Secretary Rhoades.

Playing and Dancing Enjoyed by Friends

A jolly group of boys and girls gathered at the home of Dorothy and Georgia Thompson, 1817 East Gardena avenue, Friday night. They brought with them their ukeleles, banjos and other instruments and spent the evening playing and dancing. Light refreshments were served by the two hostesses at the close of the merry party.

Those who enjoyed the affair were Margaret Richardson, Helena Richardson, Janice Kelly, Dorothy Thompson, Georgia Thompson, Norma Wallace, Ruth Goldsborough and Frances Goldsborough, Neville Richardson, Harry Richardson, Loys Griswold, Emery Myers, Herbert Brooks and Walter Sullivan.

A governmental decree forbidding the use of any foreign money as a connecting medium in Mexico, with the single exception of American gold, is now being strictly enforced by the Mexican government. Americans carrying American gold into Mexico must spend or exchange it there for Mexican money, as all gold bought to be exported from the country will be confiscated.

INFORMAL RECITAL WILL BE GIVEN HERE FRIDAY

Caruso Reproductions Will Be Given; Lecture Also an Important Feature

An innovation in musical circles here will be a series of informal recitals to be given by the Shuck-Barnes Music company at their display rooms, 211 North Brand boulevard.

The first of these novel affairs will take place Friday afternoon between 2 and 5 o'clock and Caruso reproductions on the Burnham supertone phonograph will be featured. It is quite fitting in view of the famous tenor's death that Glendale people should honor him in this way.

Selections on the Knabe Ampico also will be played by some of the most famous pianists of the world. Leslie Gordon, who for the last fourteen years has devoted himself to a research work for the larger motion picture companies, has been secured by Mr. Shuck, a personal friend, to give incidental comment on all of the numbers played.

To Give 'Inside Facts'

Mr. Gordon will deal with the history of the composers and the singers and musicians. He also will explain the motif of the music and its meaning—in some instances telling the conditions under which the numbers were composed.

The general public is invited, although from time to time personal invitations will be extended by Mr. Gordon to music lovers of the community. Programs will be arranged for Friday afternoons so as to include visiting artists in Glendale and the recitals give promise of being popular.

This city already has established itself as a musical, as well as cultural center, and Messrs. Barnes, Shuck and Gordon feel confident that their efforts in this line will be well rewarded by a large attendance.

Birth Control Will Solve Japan Problem, So Scientist Asserts

By ROBERT DONALDSON
United Press Staff Correspondent

BERKELEY, Calif., Aug. 10. — "The solution of the Japanese problem in the Pacific lies in limitation of Japan's population through birth control."

This was the declaration made today in an interview with the United Press by Dr. William E. Ritter, president of the Pacific division of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, now in session here.

Dr. Ritter is head of the University of California faculty at the Scripps institution of biological research at La Jolla, Calif.

Dr. Ritter declared that an international congress of the leading scientists of the world, including those of Japan and China, should be called to meet in Washington at the same time as President Harding's conference.

The scientific conference, as outlined by Dr. Ritter, would discuss among many other scientific subjects affecting world conditions, the limiting of population through international agreements.

Although the proposed birth control discussions would particularly deal with the present conditions in Japan and China, Dr. Ritter believes that all nations, and especially the United States, should consider the subject of limiting their population, thus eliminating economic wars, and paving the way for disarmament.

Says More Room Needed

"If something is not done along birth control lines, now that there are no more continents to discover and the era of indiscriminate territory expansion of the human race is about over, all nations, and particularly the United States will find themselves in a few decades in the same position as Japan and China are today," Dr. Ritter declared.

AUTOMOBILES COLLIDE

George Tyrrell, employee of the Glendale public service department, was traveling east on Broadway and as he approached Orange street a Los Angeles city machine appeared, going north on Orange street. When the driver of the Los Angeles machine brought the car to a halt Tyrrell attempted to turn the Glendale truck to avoid a collision. In turning the steering knuckle broke and the two machines came together, damaging both considerably. Neither of the drivers were injured.

Lou Tellegen Asserts He Doesn't Know Why Wife Locked Him Out

Copyright 1921 by The United Press.

NEW YORK, Aug. 10.—Lou Tellegen, actor husband of Geraldine Farrar today told his story of the callapse of his matrimonial bliss.

The break between himself and his prima donna wife came "like a bolt from the clear sky," he told the United Press in the first interview he has given since Miss Farrar locked him from their apartment and he gave notice that he intended to sue for separation.

Tellegen declared he had no idea why his wife had locked him out and intimated, from his tone that there was still a possibility of reconciliation.

"I cannot discuss the nature of the complaint my lawyers have drawn," he said. "It will speak for itself when filed—if such a step is decided upon."

The "lockout" was "adding insult to injury" Tellegen said, but refused to sate what the "injury" might have been.

Tellegen said he had been notified that Miss Farrar had sent his clothing to a storage warehouse. He had no comment.

Planned to Return.

"I recently returned to New York after ten months on the road," Tellegen said. "I went to Long Beach to rest, fish and study my next play.

"My wife visited me there twice, the last time about July 18. We spent the afternoon together and I planned to return to my home in New York during the next few days.

"Before I could do this, a letter was delivered to me, directing me not to return home and cautioning me not to approach my wife.

This came like a bolt from a clear sky.

"Surprised, I nevertheless went to my home to find myself locked out.

"I have no idea why this drastic action was taken. But having been humiliated and embarrassed, it was necessary to take immediate action, which I did."

Helen Hock Hostess With Birthday Party

Little Helen Hock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Hock of 612 Orange Grove avenue, was feted on Tuesday afternoon at her home in honor of her ninth birthday, about a dozen of her friends and schoolmates being present at the gay affair. The party took place on the lawn and porch, the latter being artistically and appropriately decorated for the occasion.

The afternoon was enjoyed by the kiddies in various games and guessing contests and a short musical program, in which several of the little guests took part.

Refreshments, consisting of ice cream, cake and cookies, were served by Mrs. Hock during the afternoon, after which the tiny honored hostess of the day was showered with numerous attractive gifts by her youthful admirers.

Those who took part in the celetion were Katherine Schenkel, Virginia Rhoder, Martha Schenkel, Vivian Paul, Russell Paul, Virginia Nicholson, Gertal Weger, Malcolm McIrvin, Gordon Travers, Waldo Travers, Irene Croule, Harry Crest and Eloise Cipher.

Ruth Palmer Returns From Outing at Beach

Miss Ruth Palmer of 1008 East Colorado boulevard returned to her home Monday morning from Santa Monica, where she enjoyed the week-end as one of the house guests of Miss Nellie Scarsdale of Fresno, who is spending a month with her parents at the beach resort. All four of the young ladies who took part in the house party were former classmates at the Southern Branch of the University of California in Los Angeles, this being their first reunion in two years.

Those who were present at the enjoyable affair were Misses Nellie Scarsdale, Ruth Palmer, Bessie Spears and Mabel Smith; Messrs. John Frizzell, William Spears, Lester Adams.

'Kindling Free,' Says Sign; Good Old Days!

"Kindling free" was the sign posted in front of Glendale's Public Market at 133 North Brand boulevard yesterday. It has been years since such an indication of the "good old days" was noted.

The only kindling to be picked up free lately has been splinters from the tabernacle or chautauqua seats.

Wife Snores; He Wakes Her; He Is Arrested

SAN FRANCISCO—If any one attempts to punish you for snoring, have the law on them!

You would be following the precedent set by Mrs. Norma Skinner, who today had her husband John locked up in the city jail on a charge of assault and battery.

She said he woke her up in the night because she was snoring, and beat her.

She got a warrant, and Skinner's in the city jail waiting trial before Judge Lazarus.

Watching Scoreboard

Yesterday's hero: Babe Adams made a season's record by winning his ninth straight game in pitching the Pirates to a 4 to 2 win over the Robins.

Tillie Walker and Welch beat the Cleveland Indians, 4 to 3.

Walker hit a homer and Welch a single, double and triple.

Meusel hit a homer with the bases loaded, but Mays wobbled in two innings and the Yanks lost to the White Sox, 5 to 4.

Frisch, Burns and Snyder hit homers but the Cubs liked the pitching of Toney and Douglas so well that they trimmed the Giants 8 to 7.

Southworth tripled with the bases full in the seventh and the Braves beat the Cards, 4 to 3.

The Browns scored two runs in the nineteenth inning and won the longest game of the season from Washington, 8 to 6.

After Bill Donovan had been officially canned, the Phils went out and lost to the Reds 7 to 4.

The Red Sox beat the Tigers twice, 4 to 1 and 8 to 7, and made it ten victories in a row.

Hears Master's Voice and Family Addition Appears, Doggone It!

Did the Victor dog have pups?

That's the question youngsters are asking Salmacia Brothers of the Glendale Music Company store, 109 North Brand boulevard, for they have arranged a window display in which a large Victor dog looks very knowingly at three smaller ones.

In front of this popular music house is a Victor dog three feet in height that attracts even more attention, for in addition to passersby, every strange dog in town tries to pick a fight with the statuesque replica stoically listening for "His Master's Voice."

HE KNEW

The young man who had been calling so frequently on Helen came at last to see Helen's father.

"It's a mere formality, I know, sir," he said, "this asking for your daughter's hand, but we thought it would be pleasing to you if it were observed in the usual way."

Helen's father stiffened.

"And may I inquire," he asked, "who suggested that asking my consent to Helen's marriage was a mere formality?"

"Yes, sir," replied the young man. "It was Helen's mother."

'Dice of Destiny' Is Glendale's Attraction; Comedy Is Also Shown

"The Game was crooked,
The stakes were gold,
The table—Destiny,
And the dice they rolled."

In the feature film, "Dice of Destiny" at the Glendale Theatre today and tomorrow you will see H. B. Warner, the screen's Beau Brummel, in a romanc greater in human depth, action and color than the star's great stage success, "Alias Jimmy Valentine."

As Jimmy Doyle, the ex-jewel thief, he will win your sympathy in one of the best pictures ever presented by the Glendale Theatre. "Haunted Spooks," a Harold Lloyd comedy also is on the bill. Simply to say Harold will make the fun should fill the house. The latest Pathe News and Scenic Globe Trots are the condiments of the program

Paris is visited by a plague of flies for the first time in years. The ordinary housefly is so unknown in that section of France that door and window screens and flypaper are unknown. Residents of Paris believe that the fly pest is due to the extraordinarily warm summer.
